Final Victory Condition:

- A team must win 3 out of the 5 matches to be declared the tournament champion.

Game Play

- A match begins with the umpire conducting a coin-toss. The winner has the options to serve the ball first, receive it, or choose the side of the table they like to play from.
- Players change ends of the table after every set.

Serving

- The server has to hold the ball with an open palm, toss it up (without any spin) and strike it in a manner that the ball bounces first on the server's side of the table before bouncing over the net to the other side.
- If the ball hits the net and goes over into the opponent's side during the service (a let service), it is replayed without awarding a point to either player.
- The serve must be delivered from behind the baseline and above the table.

Returning the Serve

- The receiver must return the serve so that it bounces on the opponent's side of the table.
- The receiver must not touch the ball before it bounces on their side of the table.

Other Rules

- The players must not touch the table with any part of their body, while the ball is in play.
- The players must not hit the ball twice in a row.
- The players must not obstruct their opponent's view of the ball.
- The players must not intentionally delay the game.

Tables Tennis Doubles

Game Play

- A match begins with the umpire conducting a coin-toss. The winner has the options to serve the ball first, receive it, or choose the side of the table they like to play from.
- Players change ends of the table after every set.

Serving

- The server has to hold the ball with an open palm, toss it up (without any spin) and strike it in a manner that the ball bounces first on the server's side of the table before bouncing over the net to the other side.
- The serve must be diagonally across the table, from the server's right-hand side to the receiver's right-hand side.
- The serve changes after 2 points. The next receiver is always the partner of the player who just served. The next server is the player who just was the receiver.
- If the ball hits the net and goes over into the opponent's side during the service (a let service), it is replayed without awarding a point to either player.
- The serve must be delivered from behind the baseline and above the table.

Returning the Serve

- The receiver must return the serve so that it bounces on the opponent's side of the table.
- The receiver must not touch the ball before it bounces on their side of the table.

- The receiver must stand in the correct position, diagonally to the server.
- During the rally, the players play the ball alternately. If a team hits the ball out of sequence, they lose the point.

Other Rules

- The players must not touch the table with any part of their body, while the ball is in play.
- The players must not hit the ball twice in a row.
- The players must not obstruct their opponent's view of the ball.
- The players must not intentionally delay the game.

Note - Slight changes may be made in the schedule by the authority as per the situation

Additional Rules

- Substitution Rule: A team is allowed to substitute a player before the start of any match within the phase. The substituted player cannot re-enter the same phase.
- Timeouts: Each team is allowed one 1-minute timeout per set and a break of 2 min will be given between the sets.
- Player Rotation: In semifinal and final matches, player lineups for singles and doubles must be provided 30 minutes before the match begins. This ensures that no team can anticipate the opponent's lineup strategy.
- Outsiders have to bring their own TT Bats
- Stag 3-star balls will be used for TT game.
- Decision of faculty in charge and coordinators will be final and any argument with them will lead to immediate disqualification
- Observation of any indisciplinary action or bad sport spirit activities may lead to disqualification of whole team from Tarang'24.
- In case the team or player does not report at informed time, participation will be cancelled and the other team/individual will be considered as winner of that game.
