Officiating, Conduct, and General Regulations

Match Structure

- Sets: Matches are played best of 3 or 5 sets 15/25 points (as specified by the tournament). The first team to reach 15/25 points wins a set, with a 2-point advantage required. If a last set is played, it is typically played to 15 points.
- Timeouts: Each team is allowed 2 timeouts per set, lasting 30 seconds each.

Team Composition

- Team Size: Each team consists of 6 players on the court at a time.
- Substitutions: Teams can make unlimited substitutions, but each player may only enter and exit the game once per set. All substitutions must be made at the official substitution area.

Scoring System

- Rally Scoring: Every rally results in a point for one of the teams, regardless of which team served.
- Winning a Set: The team that reaches 15/25 points first (with a 2-point advantage) wins the set. In the 5th set, the team reaching 15 points (with a 2-point advantage) wins.

Serving Rules

- Serve: The server must serve from behind the end line and may serve from anywhere behind it. The serve must cross the net and land in the opponent's court.

Service Order: Teams must follow the serving order as determined by their rotation. The server must be in the correct rotational position

Playing the Ball

- Hits: Each team is allowed a maximum of 3 hits to return the ball over the net. The ball must not be hit twice in succession by the same player (except for blocking).
- Touches: Players cannot touch the net or cross the centerline. A ball that lands outside the court or touches the antenna is out of play.

Faults

- Net Violations: Players may not touch or cross the net during play.
- Foot Faults: Servers must not step on or over the end line before making contact with the ball.
- Lift: The ball cannot come to a complete rest in a player's hands (no lifting or carrying).

Officiating

- Referees: Matches are officiated by one main referee and one or two line judges.
- Decisions: The referee's decisions are final. Teams must respect the calls made by officials.

Sportsmanship

- Conduct: Verbal abuse, physical aggression, or unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated.
- Disputes: Any disputes or concerns should be addressed respectfully and through the designated channels as outlined by the tournament organizers.

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

- ❖ There is no limit on the number of teams from the same department.
- ❖ If more than one team is formed from a single department, initial matches will be played among them.
- ❖ The best team from the department will then play against teams from other departments.

NOTE: Slight changes may be made in the schedule by the authority as per the situation.
